WHAT HAPPENED IN THE MEANTIME

Dossier presented to the CoE

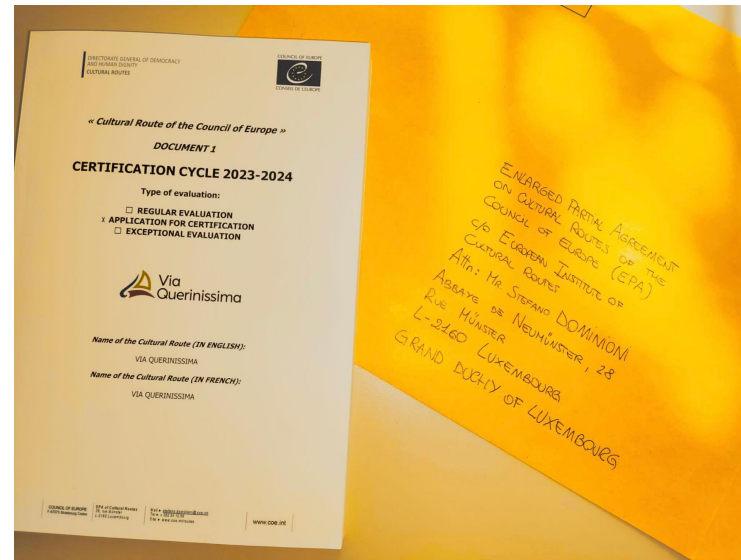

Dear members and friends of the Via Querinissima, this is a special newsletter: after many efforts, at the end of July we finally submitted our application dossier to the Council of Europe to be recognised as a Council of Europe Cultural Route.

The certification cycle of the Cultural Routes ends in April 2024, during which year members can be contacted by the Council of Europe's expert for an interview about the Association's activities and common projects.

Fingers crossed!

Logo restyling

One of the aspects that the CoE required for the application was also the visual communication. Therefore, we commissioned graphic designer Dario Montanaro, to do a slight restyling of the Via Querinissima logo.

Based on the original logo, the new logo should emphasise the concept of networking and travelling. The stylised figures with recurring thicknesses and shapes trace the concept of the Via as route, departure, return and connection by water and land.

Via Querinissima encompasses different areas and activities, which is why there will be different declinations of the logo. We are producing on a brand manual that we will send you together with the visual study as soon as it is ready. We are also working on an official event where the new logo will be presented. As soon as we know more details, we will let you know.

On the side you can see the starting point for the visual design of the logo.

Pietro Querini's literary heritage

We are working on the website to include the great and varied literary heritage related to Pietro Querini and his story.

If you have any suggestions, please feel free to contact us!
